DIRECT DEBIT - AN EASIER WAY TO PAY YOUR RENT AND INSURANCE

The City Council is improving services to tenants by offering a better and easier way to pay rent. Millions of people in Britain now pay many types of bill by Direct Debit. If you have a Bank or Building Society Current Account we invite you to pay your rent by Direct Debit. This method of payment helps us and also helps you by keeping rent levels as low as possible.

JUST LOOK AT THE ADVANTAGES

We do all the work for you.

The Council and your Bank or Building Society take care of all the details.

No action needed if your rent changes.

If the amount of rent you pay increases or decreases, the bank will automatically adjust your Direct Debit to the new amount following instruction by the council.

No more cheques to write.

No letter to post. No need to carry cash or join a queue to pay.

You can cancel at any time.

And there's even a guaranteed refund if ever a Direct Debit is wrongly presented. It is also the method that your Bank or Building Society and the Council recommend to you.

Flexible payment dates.

You choose the most suitable date for the Direct Debit to come off your account. Any dates from 1st to 28th for monthly payments and any day for weekly payments. You can also choose to make fortnightly or 4 - weekly payments.

Confirmation of Direct Debit.

Once the Direct Debit instruction is in place we will confirm the date and value of the first and subsequent payments.

IT'S SIMPLE TO START PAYING BY DIRECT DEBIT

If you would like to pay by Direct Debit, please complete the overleaf instruction and return it as soon as possible.

Please complete parts 1 to 5 to instruct your bank or building society to make payments directly from your account.

Then please return the form to:
Rent Accounts, Business Hub 11, Marischal College, Broad Street, Aberdeen AB10 1AB
