Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your information request of 14 October 2017 which we received on 16 October 2017. Aberdeen City Council (ACC) has completed the necessary search for the information requested.

How many drivers have been fined for speeding or travelling the wrong way on dancingcairns place in the last three years.

Information relating to speed offences or travelling the wrong way is only available through Police Scotland. You can contact Police Scotland for this information at the following address:

FOI Central Processing Unit

ACC is unable to provide you with information on How many drivers have been fined for speeding or travelling the wrong way on dancingcairns place in the last three years as it is not held by the Council. In order to comply with its obligations under the terms of Regulation 10(4)(a) - Information Not Held - of the EIRs, ACC hereby gives notice that this information is not held by it. ACC is required by Regulation 10(1)(b) of the EIRs to inform you as to why in all the circumstances of the case, the public interest in maintaining this exception outweighs the public interest in disclosing this information to you. ACC is satisfied that it does not hold this information and considers that, as there is no information held, the public interest lies with the exception.

We hope this helps with your request.

Yours sincerely,

Salomeh Kheyri Rad
Information Compliance Officer

INFORMATION ABOUT THE HANDLING OF YOUR REQUEST

As the information which you requested is environmental information, as defined under Regulation 2(1) of the Environmental Information (Scotland) Regulations 2004 (the EIRs), ACC considered that it was exempt from release through FOISA, and must therefore give you notice that we are refusing your request under Section 39(2) of FOISA (Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002). However, you have a separate right to access the information which you have requested under Regulation 5 of the EIRs, under which ACC has handled your request.

Please refer to the attached PDF for more information about your rights under the EIRs.
