

Timetable for European Parliamentary elections in Great Britain: 23 May 2019

The UK Government's current position is that the UK will not take part in the European Parliamentary elections in May 2019.

The elections will take place in other EU Member States between Thursday 23 and Sunday 26 May 2019. We are publishing this timetable as part of our contingency planning. For the purposes of this timetable, we have assumed that, should the elections go ahead in the UK, polling day would be Thursday 23 May.

As a result of a bank holiday in Gibraltar on 29 April and on 1 May 2019, some electoral deadlines in the South West electoral region are different to the deadlines elsewhere in Great Britain. This is why we have included the deadlines for the South West region in a separate column.
