

Find my past

<http://www.findmypast.co.uk/>

Introduction

Find My Past is a major online commercial family history resource which gives access to over 2 billion records. The website is important because it contains some exclusive family history records. Among other records the resource contains:

- Transcribed OPRs baptism, marriage and burial records (back to 1538)
- Transcribed Scottish Censuses (1841-1901)
- British newspaper collection (1710-1953)
- Crime, prisons and punishment records (England and Wales, 1770-1934)
- British military records (national and international conflicts, 1760 to the 20th Century)
- Passengers list leaving UK (1890-1960)

Access

The library offers free access to this website.

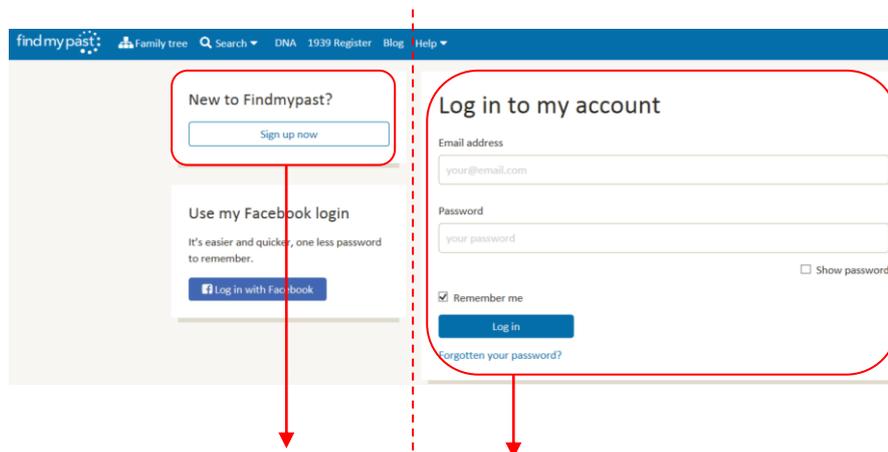

There is a link in the Online resources section of the library's website.

Please note: You need to be in a library building to get free access.

Create an account

By creating an account you will be able to access to personalised features such as creating a family tree and saving searches. However this is not entirely necessary, you can also use the website as a guest.

From the home page, you can subscribe or Log in to access to your account. Simply click on the tab “Subscribe/Log In”.

Sign in

If you already have an account. Simply enter your email address and your password, then click on “Login”.

Log in

Enter your personal information (first name, last name, country of residence, email address, password).

Please note: You have to accept the terms and conditions and the privacy policy before to click on “Register for free”.

Make a search

There are three ways of searching:

Option n°1: Search all records

Option n°2: Use the drop-down list (categories)

Option n°3: Use the A –Z listing

Click on “Search” (navigation bar) to access to the drop-down menu

- Option n°1: Search all records

General research across all the records indexed.

This tab is useful if you're just getting started your family research or if you wish to see new results for someone you already know. Especially interesting if you are looking for someone with an unusual name (too many results if name too common).

- Option n°2: Drop-down list

This list gives an access to a particular group of records (Birth, marriage, death and parish records, Census, Churches records, directories, School records, Military records, Migration records...).

- Option n°3: A-Z listing

A to Z listing of all the record sets held and accessible on the website. Very useful if you know exactly what you are looking for!

An overview of the search page

By selecting a category (drop-down menu, cf. above), you will arrive on a tailored search page which looks like this one:

Short introduction to the category + Links to “Learn more” and find “Useful links” (also available below the search box and on the right side – cf. bottom of the screen capture). Internal links.

A-Z of record sets
Tab to filter via the A-Z listing (cf. 1c).

The screenshot shows the search interface for 'Directories & social history'. At the top, there are dropdown menus for 'World', 'Directories & social history', and 'All Subcategories'. Below this is a header section with a title and a short introduction, followed by 'Learn more' and 'Useful links' buttons. On the left side, there is a sidebar with a 'World' dropdown menu and a list of categories, including 'Directories & social history' which is currently selected. The main search area contains fields for 'WHO' (First Name, Last Name), 'WHEN' (Year, Year of Birth, Year of Death), 'WHERE', 'SUBCATEGORY', 'RECORD SET', and 'OPTIONAL KEYWORDS'. A search button is located at the bottom of this section. At the bottom of the page, there are links for 'Learn about these records' and 'Useful Links & Resources'. A red box highlights the 'A-Z of record sets' tab on the right side.

Filter by country
Click and select the country you are looking for

Filter by category and/or subcategories
Simply click on one of the items to filter your research.

Search tools
Select all or part of the information (they can varied according to the category chosen).
To start the research, simply click on “Search... [type of resources]”
