INTRODUCTION

Aberdeen City and Aberdeenshire Archives holds records for 17 Congregational Churches across the North East. This guide lists the records we hold for each church.

Different records have survived for different churches, so not all churches will have the same information. This guide contains information about the records held for each church. If you wish to look at any of the records, please note the reference number (this will start with the letters CC) and take care to ensure the record you wish to view covers the correct dates.

The records are listed in the following format:

Reference number
Item Number
Description of the item
Covering Dates

If you wish to look at any of the records, please note the reference number (this always starts with the letters CC) and take care to ensure the record you wish to view covers the correct dates.

For example, if you wish to view an item relating to Huntly Congregational Church, you would note the reference as CC/11 and then the number of the item you wish to view.

You do not need to note the description of the item, only the reference, but please ensure you have identified the correct item. If you are unsure of what an item is, staff are available to help. Please do not hesitate to ask if you have any queries regarding this guide and the information contained within.
