Dear Sir/Madam

HISTORIC ENVIRONMENT SCOTLAND – DATA PROTECTION ACT 1998

On 1 October 2015, Historic Scotland and The Royal Commission on the Ancient and Historical Monuments of Scotland (RCAHMS) will cease to operate and will be replaced by a new organisation, Historic Environment Scotland (HES). This new organisation (which is a Non Departmental Public Body) is established by the Historic Environment Scotland Act 2014. Historic Environment Scotland will assume the property, rights, liabilities and obligations of Historic Scotland and RCAHMS.

Under the terms of the Data Protection Act 1998 we are obliged to inform you of the change in the ownership of Personal Data we currently hold on you. We hold your data because you are an owner, occupier, land manager, or other nominated contact associated with a scheduled monument. This allows us to monitor the condition of scheduled monuments, and notify you of any potential designation changes. In practice there will be no change in the way we process your Personal Data.

The contact details we currently hold are given above. Overleaf are the details of the scheduled monuments associated with your record. If you would like any of these details to be updated, or have any concerns, please contact us, providing both the old and new details, and your contact reference.

Yours faithfully
