Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your information request of 17 January 2017. Aberdeen City Council (ACC) has completed the necessary search for the information requested.

I request all electronic copies of all documents (including but not limited to emails, letters, briefing notes and reports) relating to payments made or funding agreements between Aberdeen City Council and the Scottish Local Government Partnership from 1st of March 2015 until 17th January 2017.

Aberdeen City Council does not make payments to the Scottish Local Government Partnership. However, the amount spent by Aberdeen City Council on membership of the SLGP and associated costs for attending meetings and generating reports are detailed below.

- 2015/2016: £22,500 being a 25% share of the fee charged by COSLA to allow the SLGP councils to participate in national collective bargaining arrangements.
- 2016/2017: £22,500 being a 25% share of the fee charged by COSLA to allow the SLGP councils to participate in national collective bargaining arrangements.
- Up to £12,500 being a 25% share towards the costs of support to deliver the SLGP's engagement strategy and outward facing communications.
- £5,000 being a 25% share of the costs of a report commissioned by the SLGP from the Fraser of Allander Institute.

The only other costs incurred relate to train travel to meetings, the majority of which take place in either Glasgow or Edinburgh.

We hope this helps with your request.

Yours sincerely,

Information Compliance Team
