Policy/Site/Issue	OP7 - Aberdeen College Gordon Centre	Paragraph(s)	Appendix 2 - Opportunity Sites

What would you like to say about the issue?

This site lies adjacent to Royal Aberdeen Golf Club and it is important that if it is to be developed, then it is done so in a way which is sensitive to the neighbouring parties. The golf club is an important tourist destination in the north-east, which makes a significant contribution of the local economy. To ensure the ongoing success in fulfilling this role, the amenity and setting of the golf club should be protected.

What change would you like to see made?

Under the "Other Factors" associated with site OP7 it is noted that the woodland on site, particularly along the site's boundaries should be retained. This is strongly supported, to ensure that the amenity of the golf club is protected. This wording should therefore be retained in the proposed plan.

Please return the completed form by:
